

ICONS is a MonTrail original series that shines a light on transformative African political leaders. These remarkable individuals undertook missions greater than themselves, driven by the goal of creating lasting positive change. They dedicated their lives to resolving pressing issues and transforming hopelessness into a future full of promise for their communities and the continent as a whole. Their legacy and positive contributions continue to inspire and challenge us all.

SCAN ME

“ In a state of poverty, illiteracy, people just remain exposed to all kinds of manipulation. ”

In a continent where grandiose speeches are frequently mistaken for genuine progress, Kagame distinguishes himself by actions rather than words.
~ MonTrail Originals, ICONS

With piercing clarity, RPF General Paul Kagame realised that continuing to wait for the world to intervene was fiction.
